CHICAGO
Led by pacers and leaving in waves, participants will begin the 10K Fun Run outside of Macy's State Street on the corner of N. Wabash Avenue and W. Randolph Street. Participants will run south to E. Washington Street where they will turn left and head east towards Millennium Park. Once inside the park, participants continue heading east until they hit the amphitheater where they will turn right and follow the perimeter towards the pedestrian bridge. Participants will run over the bridge and through Maggie Daley Park towards the Lakefront Trail at E. Randolph Street. Once on the Lakefront Trail, participants will head south to Shedd Aquarium. Participants will run around the aquarium and will head west using the South Lakeshore Drive underpass. Participants will turn around shortly after the underpass and return to Macy's State Street following the same route.
